Buarij Portrait of a Lebanese Muslim Village

This book provides essential background to anyone interested in Middle Eastern affairs. It details the social, political, and economic transformations that face the region today. The book includes chapters on Arab unity and identity; demographic processes; the roles of men, women, and family; rural social change; political developments; and religious change. For students, scholars, and general readers alike, Arab Society offers up-to-date analysis and discussion of the social, political, and economic developments in the region.

The Middle East (Routledge Revivals)

The Middle East (Routledge Revivals) offers a comprehensive survey of the region's history, politics, economy, and culture. The book covers the major events and developments in the Middle East from ancient to modern times, including the rise of Islamic civilization, the Ottoman Empire, World War I, the creation of the modern nation-states of the Middle East, and contemporary issues such as the Arab-Israeli conflict, terrorism, and the role of oil in the global economy.

Lebanon

Lebanon, by Richard N. Bjerkaas, is a comprehensive overview of the country's history, culture, and politics. The book covers the region's rich history, including the Phoenician civilization, the Roman Empire, and the Ottoman Empire, and the political and social developments that have shaped modern Lebanon. The book includes chapters on the country's economy, religion, and culture, as well as its role in the regional and international political landscape.

Women and Gender in a Lebanese Village

Women and Gender in a Lebanese Village is a detailed study of gender roles and family dynamics in a Lebanese village. The book explores the complex relationships between women and men, as well as the social and cultural factors that shape these relationships. The book includes chapters on the roles of women in the family, the impact of Western influences on gender roles, and the influence of religion on gender relations.

The Political Aspects of Islamic Philosophy

The Political Aspects of Islamic Philosophy is a comprehensive study of the political thought of Islamic philosophers, including the works of al-Ghazali, al-Jahiz, and al-Farabi. The book explores the ways in which Islamic political thought has influenced modern political thought, and the role of Islamic philosophy in shaping contemporary political issues.

Spiritual Wayfaring, Leaders in Piety, and Sufi Institutions

Spiritual Wayfaring, Leaders in Piety, and Sufi Institutions is a detailed study of the Sufi movement in the Islamic world. The book explores the history, teachings, and practices of the Sufi movement, as well as its role in the Islamic world and its impact on contemporary Islamic thought.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children’s Issues Worldwide

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children’s Issues Worldwide is a comprehensive reference work on children’s issues around the world. The book covers a wide range of topics, including child labor, education, health, and human rights, and includes contributions from experts in the fields of sociology, anthropology, and development studies.

The Moral Resonance of Arab Media

The Moral Resonance of Arab Media is a detailed study of the role of media in shaping public opinion and social discourse in the Arab world. The book explores the ways in which media influence public opinion, as well as the role of media in shaping social and political change.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Muslim Saints

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Muslim Saints is a comprehensive reference work on Muslim saints from around the world. The book covers a wide range of topics, including the lives and teachings of Muslim saints, as well as their impact on contemporary Islamic thought.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature is a comprehensive reference work on Arabic literature, including a wide range of topics, such as the history of Arabic literature, the major genres and themes, and the key figures and works in the field.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Women in the Arab World

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Women in the Arab World is a comprehensive reference work on women in the Arab world, including a wide range of topics such as the history of women in the Arab world, the impact of colonialism and globalization on women's lives, and the role of women in contemporary Arab societies.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children’s Issues Worldwide, Second Edition is a comprehensive reference work on children’s issues around the world, covering a wide range of topics such as child labor, education, health, and human rights, and including contributions from experts in the fields of sociology, anthropology, and development studies.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature, Second Edition

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature, Second Edition is a comprehensive reference work on Arabic literature, covering a wide range of topics such as the history of Arabic literature, the major genres and themes, and the key figures and works in the field.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Muslim Saints, Second Edition

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Muslim Saints, Second Edition is a comprehensive reference work on Muslim saints from around the world, covering a wide range of topics such as the lives and teachings of Muslim saints, as well as their impact on contemporary Islamic thought.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Women in the Arab World, Second Edition

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Women in the Arab World, Second Edition is a comprehensive reference work on women in the Arab world, covering a wide range of topics such as the history of women in the Arab world, the impact of colonialism and globalization on women’s lives, and the role of women in contemporary Arab societies.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children’s Issues Worldwide, Third Edition is a comprehensive reference work on children’s issues around the world, covering a wide range of topics such as child labor, education, health, and human rights, and including contributions from experts in the fields of sociology, anthropology, and development studies.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature, Third Edition

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature, Third Edition is a comprehensive reference work on Arabic literature, covering a wide range of topics such as the history of Arabic literature, the major genres and themes, and the key figures and works in the field.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Muslim Saints, Third Edition

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Muslim Saints, Third Edition is a comprehensive reference work on Muslim saints from around the world, covering a wide range of topics such as the lives and teachings of Muslim saints, as well as their impact on contemporary Islamic thought.

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Women in the Arab World, Third Edition

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Women in the Arab World, Third Edition is a comprehensive reference work on women in the Arab world, covering a wide range of topics such as the history of women in the Arab world, the impact of colonialism and globalization on women’s lives, and the role of women in contemporary Arab societies.